No member of the Appeals Committee may take part in ruling on an appeal involving a direct or indirect interest, conflict of interest, or a family, professional, associative, or sporting relationship with any of the parties involved. In such cases, the member will be replaced by an alternate.

Only the directly interested player, or their legal representative, may file an appeal.

The appeal must be submitted in writing, with proper justification, no later than 30 (thirty) minutes after the end of the game or the official notification of the decision being appealed, whichever occurs last.

The appeal must be sent to the email brazilchessseries@gmail.com or, exceptionally, filed with the Chief Arbiter, accompanied by proof of payment of the USD 100 appeal fee.

The appeal fee will be fully refunded if the appeal is upheld, in whole or in part. If it is dismissed, the fee will not be refunded.

The Appeals Committee may hear:

- a) appeals against decisions made by the arbiter team;
- b) protests concerning the application of the Laws of Chess, the FIDE Regulations, or these Regulations;
- c) disciplinary or conduct issues occurring during the competition, when referred by the arbiter team or the Organization;
- d) other matters within its authority that may affect the regularity of the competition.

The Committee may request clarification from the Chief Arbiter, assistant arbiters, the players involved, witnesses, and any other persons it deems necessary, as well as review scoresheets, electronic records, photographs, recordings, and any other available evidence before reaching a decision.

Appeals against pairings generated by FIDE-approved software will not be accepted, except where an error is shown in entering results, in the tournament setup, or in player registration.

Rulings of the Appeals Committee will be decided by simple majority vote. The decision will be justified, recorded in writing, and communicated to the interested parties.

Decisions of the Appeals Committee are final and not subject to further appeal within the scope of the competition, without prejudice to the right of the parties to appeal to the competent bodies of the CBX or FIDE, where applicable, under their respective regulations.
